Meat Prices

Beef - $2.69 hanging weight (usually dress out at about 600 lbs for a whole steer, 300 / half or 150 pounds / quarter), plus processing costs (up to $100 per quarter). A quarter beef yields about 100 pounds of beef, cut and wrapped, for your freezer - a year's worth of beef for a small family. Ground beef quarters are available for $1.50 / lb hanging weight.

Lamb - $200 each plus processing costs, usually about $80 A whole lamb will provide you with about 50 lbs of meat cut and wrapped in the freezer.

Pigs (halves or wholes) - $4.50 / lb hanging weight (usually dress out at around 150 lbs) plus processing costs (around $125). You end up with about 120 pounds cut and wrapped in your freezer.

Whole chickens - $4.50/lb dressed – usually between 3 and 5 lbs.
